How To Do Business with the Film and Television Industry

Date and Time: Tuesday, February 11 1:30 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: 270 Simcoe Street North, Oshawa, ON L1G 4T5 (Parkwood National Heritage Site, McLaughlin Room in Carriage House)

The Region of Durham is becoming a preferred destination for the film and television (TV) industry, so why not make your business a part of their next film. The film and TV industry relies on hundreds of creative and professional services to make a production successful. Imagine hosting actors in your hotel or restaurant, providing materials to build a set, dry cleaning a production's wardrobe, renting out equipment or providing vehicles to be used on screen. Get involved by attending a free seminar on how to do business with the film and TV industry—hosted by the Durham Region Film Commission (Film Durham), in collaboration with the Region's municipal film offices and Parkwood National Historic Site.

At the event, attendees will meet with industry professionals, network, and engage in panel discussions. Topics will include:

- What products and services are needed by production companies.
- How to take advantage of opportunities in the sector.
- Understand the challenges of working with the industry.
- How to connect with key personnel and market your business.
- What questions you should ask about sourcing and purchasing timelines.

When: Tuesday, February 11, from 1:30 to 4 p.m.

Where: Parkwood National Historic Site located at 270 Simcoe Street North in Oshawa, Ontario

Why: Durham Region provides unique filming locations for the film and TV industry and offers a wide range of locally available goods and services, including equipment, accommodations, transportation, food, personal services, signage, dry cleaners, florists, post-production facilities, construction and more. Keeping production spending in Durham Region benefits local businesses and the local economy.

Notes: Light refreshments will be provided. Seating is limited. Please register by Wednesday, February 5 at 11:59 p.m. at FilmDurham.eventbrite.com.

For more information about Durham Region's film and television industry, visit InvestDurham.ca/film.

- In 2024, there were feature films, TV series and commercials shot in almost every municipality in Durham.
- Durham's film and TV production sites include a dedicated film studio, Canada's largest filming backlot, post-production facilities and one of Canada's top-10 filming locations.
- Durham offers urban, rural, industrial, natural and cultural locations that are suitable for a wide range of production shoots—including scenic bridges, urban streetscapes, quaint downtowns, quarries, museums, rustic train stations and more.
- The Durham Region International Film Festival (DRIFF)—an event showcasing inspiring films and filmmakers from Canada and across the globe.

Practical Planning for Your Health - the Five Domains of Wellness Free workshop

Date and Time: Thursday, February 27 10:00 am - 11:30 am

Address: ONLINE via ZOOM

There was a time when we thought of wellness as simply that our body was disease-free. Now we understand health and wellness include taking care of many aspects of our well-being including:

- Physical
- Emotional
- Intellectual
- Social
- Spiritual

In this workshop we explore what it means to do well in each area of our health, questions we can ask ourselves to determine what areas we could do better. We then discuss different actions you can take to work on the areas you wish to improve.

Register to receive the link to join the class on ZOOM. <https://www.ceselfmanagement.ca/workshopsignup?id=10238&rt=0> or call our toll-free line at 1-866-971-5545

Eli Young with special guests Hailey Benedict and Alexa Goldie

Date and Time: Friday, February 28 8:00 pm

Address: 44 Bond St. E. Oshawa, ON L1G 1B2

With over two decades of success, Mike Eli, James Young, Jon Jones, and Chris Thompson continue to rise as chart-topping pioneers. Special guests include the guitar-wielding CCMA Award-winning Hailey Benedict and CMAO-nominated rising star Alexa Goldie.

Led by an unmistakable vocal and bringing a Texas-rock edge to modern country for 25 years, the Eli Young Band's never-changing lineup of Mike Eli, James Young, Jon Jones, and Chris Thompson have spent decades on the run, growing from hometown heroes into globe-trotting, chart-topping pioneers. Now, they're coming home. Founded in Denton, Texas, and rising to become arena-packing icons of the state's independent country scene, EYB's 2005 album Level launched the band into the mainstream, followed by three career Billboard Top 5 albums including the Number One 10,000 Towns and Platinum Life At Best. Boasting back-to-back Number One singles with the 5X Platinum "Crazy Girl" in 2011 and 3X Platinum "Even If It Breaks Your Heart" (2012), plus the Platinum Number One "Drunk Last Night," 2X Platinum Number One "Love Ain't" and more, the band's unbroken streak of success has now led to a millions-strong fandom, and after keeping the intensity of their live shows front and center, it's time to get back to the point. Ready to follow up 2022's Love Talking, the band have returned to the Denton studio where Level was born – bringing new tunes and new excitement along with them. Also returning to their independent roots, a fresh batch of co-written songs match the raw, grassroots energy and emotional sting of their early work, geared for the stage and recorded without digital tricks. Released September 27, "Home In Hometown" starts the new era and marks EYB's creative homecoming—a true-to-experience ballad of life on the highway, unpacking what "home" really means. Driven by experience and a million miles of wisdom, look for more new music and more shows, from a band of brothers still very much in their prime.
