Born to be Wild - Meet and Greet with Mars Bonfire

Date and Time: Sunday, September 15 6:00 pm - 10:00 pm

Address: 44 Bond St E, Oshawa, ON L1G 1B1

Mars Bonfire is coming in from the wild to return to his hometown of Oshawa on Sunday, September 15.

Mars Bonfire (born Dennis McCrohan) wrote the rock mega-hit 'Born to be Wild' which introduced the term heavy metal to the world at large, as well as the band Steppenwolf, which had its roots in Toronto's Yorkville scene of the 60's.

For much of the past few decades, the 80 year old Mars Bonfire has been travelling the wilderness of America not as one might suspect on a motorbike, but on foot. He is an accomplished hiker, but he will be in situ at the new Bond St. Event Centre in downtown Oshawa for a special public meet and greet as well as a tribute event.

Three bands will perform covering the psychedelic sounds and songs Mars Bonfire is associated with. This is a ticketed event offering an opportunity for fans to meet, take pictures, and get items signed by the man who penned the rock n' roll anthem of the road.

This is a ticketed event: Tickets are General Admission: $10 plus service fee and tax in advance or $20 at the door.

Born to be Wild Tickets

The documentary is being produced by Paul Koidis in association with Rogers and PBS/WNED.

Last year, as part of the city's inaugural Convergence Art and Music Festival, Koidis initiated Steppenwolf Day in Oshawa, and during a zoom call on the day, Mars Bonfire said he would return to Oshawa soon. A man of his word as well as the world.

Whiskey Jack presents The Stories & Songs of Stompin' Tom

Date and Time: Friday, September 27 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 50 King St E Oshawa, Ontario

THIS EVENT HAS BEEN RESCHEDULED - TICKETHOLDERS HAVE BEEN NOTIFIED

Rescheduled from Thursday, May 16, 2024*

Presented by: Mansfield Entertainment

Since Whiskey Jack's inception 45+ years ago, their fans have been showering them with accolades, celebrating their songs and stories. But the one constant that has fueled their success is what brings the crowds to their feet each night - a polished show exuding charm, ease and playfulness. Since day one, band leader Duncan Fremlin has been welcoming elite members of the Canadian music community to the Whiskey Jack family.

Success took off in the 1980's when the band was invited to host their own "Ol' Back Porch" segment on CBC TV's Tommy Hunter Show. Then, when Stompin' Tom resumed his career, he called Duncan and invited Whiskey Jack to join him in the studio to record his acclaimed album, "Dr. Stompin' Tom... Eh?". These two Canadian musical institutions would continue to perform and record together until Tom's death in 2014.

Whiskey Jack in 2024 continues to write, record and tour across the country.

Recommended Age: 10+

Age Restriction: 7+

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Today, Duncan is joined by two-time Juno nominee, Douglas John Cameron and Stompin' Tom's favourite fiddler, from PEI, Billy MacInnis. Douglas John is recognized across Canada for his 1985 hit, Mona With The Children (True North Records). That was soon followed by his weekly appearances on Ants in Your Pants (Treehouse TV). His theatrical and dynamic approach to performing, coupled with his talents on many instruments, bring an endless supply of energy to this already dynamic band.
