Cold Sowing Workshop

Date and Time: Saturday, March 1 10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Address: 1496 Durham Regional Road 3 Hampton, ON L0B 1J0

Did you know that you can start seeds in recycled containers and put them outside to germinate! Yes, you can! Come learn about this low maintenance technique, native plants and help Friends of Second Marsh sow seeds in containers for transplanting out to McLaughlin Bay Wildlife Reserve. All supplies are provided for this activity including a take-home kit.

We are thinking warmly of how much fun we will have with our volunteers getting our hands dirty after the chilly weeks of winter!

Join Friends of Second Marsh on March 1, 2025 and start native plants from seed at our indoor Cold Sowing Workshop.

The Canine Circus - Bone-Dropping Fun

Date and Time: Saturday, March 1 1:00 pm - 2:15 pm

Address: 50 King St. E. Oshawa, Ontario

Presented by Blackrose Entertainment.

We're taking the circus for a walk! Witness our world-renowned furry four-legged cast members perform tail-wagging feats of courage, bone-dropping grand illusions, and Labrador-able stunts! Watch the miracles and mayhem unfold all around you!

As seen in the 2022 Canada's Got Talent! Featuring acts from African & European Circus, Cirque Du Soleil alumni, and world champion performers! Hosted by international illusionist Aaron Matthews.

*All the dogs that perform in our show are trained using positive methods. They are rewarded with treats, praise, and love. They are the family pets of the trainers and their performance is "playing" with them on stage. The bond between the handlers and their pets is evident and that is the real magic of the show!

Age Requirement: 2+ *Everyone requires a ticket

Stolen Time - Film Screening and Guest Speakers

Date and Time: Wednesday, March 5 6:30 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: 50 King St E Oshawa, Ontario

Presented by Ontario Tech Faculty of Social Science and Humanities

Free Event - Tickets Required

Main Doors Open: 5:30 p.m.

Film Starts: 6:30 p.m.

The documentary "Stolen Time" by filmmaker Helene Klodawsky features Melissa Miller, a prominent lawyer and advocate for justice in long-term care (LTC) homes. Melissa Miller is known for representing families of LTC residents who suffered neglect and abuse, particularly during the COVID-19 pandemic. In the film, Miller's insights and legal expertise help to expose the failures of the for-profit LTC system in Canada and highlight the devastating effects these failures had on vulnerable residents.

The film screening will be followed by a special conversation between Ontario Tech Professor and LTC expert and advocate, Dr. Vivian Stamatopoulos, and Melissa Miller.

Recommended Age: 14+

Age Restriction: 7

Helene Klodawsky's feature-length documentary Stolen Time, is co-produced by Intuitive Pictures and the National Film Board of Canada (NFB), and follows elder rights lawyer Melissa Miller as she takes on the corporate for-profit nursing home industry in Canada.

Our Lady Peace

Date and Time: Wednesday, March 5 7:00 pm - 11:00 pm

Address: 99 Athol Street East

In celebration of their 30-year career, iconic Canadian rock band Our Lady Peace (OLP) has announced their highly anticipated OLP30 Tour, kicking off in February 2025 with shows across Canada, including a stop in Oshawa at the Tribute Communities Centre on March 5, 2025. Following the release of OLP30 Vol. One—featuring the new single "Sound The Alarm"—this tour will be a powerful tribute to the band's three-decade legacy and an unforgettable experience for fans both old and new.

The OLP30 Tour kicks off in Calgary, AB on February 19, 2025, taking Our Lady Peace through major cities like Edmonton, Ottawa, and Halifax as they revisit their biggest hits and introduce new tracks. Each performance will celebrate the band's evolution while delivering an energetic, one-of-a-kind show.

Joining OLP across Canada will be Georgia-born rock band Collective Soul, who are also celebrating three decades of making music together. From March 4 to March 12, Canadian rock band Wintersleep will support the tour, with Ash Molloy making a special appearance at the Halifax show on March 13. "We are beyond excited to bring you a show like we've never done before for the OLP30th anniversary tour! It's going to be one badass celebration you don't want to miss!" says frontman Raine Maida.

Known for their groundbreaking sound, OLP has spent the past three decades shaping the Canadian rock scene and inspiring fans worldwide with hits like "Clumsy," "Superman's Dead," and "Somewhere Out There." The OLP30 Tour promises to highlight these timeless anthems while also showcasing new material that reflects the band's continued evolution.

How to Read Food Labels to Support Healthy Eating- Free Workshop

Date and Time: Thursday, March 6 10:00 am - 11:30 am

Address: online Via ZOOM

In this workshop we explore the many things that influence our food choices and what we need to know about processed packaged food to make informed choices. We will consider:

- Our food history, what was food like as we grew up
- What food is available to us now
- What marketing strategies does the food industry use to persuade us to buy their products
- What do we need to pay attention to on the food labels and why, including:
 - Ingredient List
 - Nutrition Claims
 - Health Claims
 - Nutrition Facts Table
- We will practice reading some labels and consider what kind of eating habits support a healthy eating pattern.

Classic Movie Night - Murder On The Orient Express (1974)

Date and Time: Thursday, March 6 7:00 pm - 9:15 pm

Address: 50 King St. E. Oshawa, Ontario

Classic Movie Nights - First Thursday of Each Month

Thursday, March 6, 2025 7:00 PM – Murder on the Orient Express (1974)

Starring: Albert Finney, Lauren Bacall, Ingrid Bergman

AA / 2h 8min / Crime, Drama, Mystery, Thriller, Whodunnit

The first class compartments of the Orient Express from Istanbul are full, unusual for this time of the year. On board is Hercule Poirot, the famed and fastidious Belgian detective that needs to get back to London as soon as possible. He is able to gain a compartment with the assistance of his friend Signor Bianchi who is not only making the trip, but is one of the directors of the train line. A first class passenger tells Poirot he has received several death threats and requests protection, but is found dead in his stateroom. Due to a storm and snow blocking the tracks, the train is stopped and delayed until the path can be cleared. Bianchi requests Poirot's assistance to find the murder and avoid police involvement. While investigating the murder and questioning everyone onboard, he discovers many had both opportunity and motive.

Bad to The Bone - George Thorogood Tribute & Bootleg Creedence - CCR Tribute

Date and Time: Saturday, March 8 8:00 pm - 10:00 pm

Address: 50 King St. E. Oshawa, Ontario

Presented by Blackrose Entertainment in Association with CKDO 107.7 FM and 1580 AM.

Bad to The Bone (George Thorogood Tribute) & Bootleg Creedence (CCR Tribute)

"Bad to the Bone" is North America's one and only tribute to George Thorogood! The band was formed in the summer of 1993 by Gator James and has been going strong ever since. Based out of Oshawa, Ontario, this band is the only authentic tribute to George Thorogood to date and continues to wow audiences from coast to coast. The band has shared stages with many recording artists over the years and some several times over, including April Wine, Kim Mitchell, David Wilcox, Georgia Satellites, Sass Jordan, Goddo, and many others.

"Bootleg Creedence" features four seasoned, well-respected musicians who have been making music in various combinations and styles, for over twenty-five years. It is only fitting that they should come together to form "Bootleg Creedence", and pay homage to a group that dominated the charts during the band members' formative years, Creedence Clearwater Revival. Bootleg Creedence takes its audience on a rockin' ride down to the bayou. Authentic-sounding, "Bootleg Creedence" leaves no stone unturned keeping true to the sound of CCR and John Fogerty.

Making A Mini Forest - A Film by Angelina Lee and Narrated by Hannah Lewis

Date and Time: Sunday, March 23 2:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: 50 King St. E. Oshawa, Ontario

Presented by Little Forests Durham in Association with Durham Master Gardeners and Green Communities Canada.

"Making a Mini-Forest" is a documentary film based on the book "Mini-Forest Revolution" by Hannah Lewis and covers the international movement to plant mini-forests to support local biodiversity and counter climate change.

Little Forests Durham, the Durham Master Gardeners and Green Communities Canada are pleased to present an exclusive Canadian screening of "Making a Mini-Forest" by Angelina Lee and narrated by Hannah Lewis, author of "Mini-Forest Revolution".

Focusing on people planting mini-forests in European cities using the Miyawaki Method, a tree-planting technique that focuses on regionally native tree species. It uses no chemical fertilizers or additives, on a relatively small area of land, and requires no maintenance after a few years. Narrated by Hannah Lewis, author of "Mini-Forest Revolution", these stories form a bigger picture of planting mini-forests to counter climate change and restore biodiversity.

"Songs Of Soul" Regent Theatre featured artists:

Gary Beals is a Canadian singer who is best known for being runner up in the first season of Canadian Idol. He is a resident of Cherry Brook, Nova Scotia and named "Best Halifamous Person of 2003" by The Coast, and on Nov 22, 2003, Halifax Regional Municipality celebrated "Gary Beals Day"! His first self-titled album, entered the Canadian album charts at Number 10 and went on to sell over 100,000 copies.

Suzie McNeil burst onto the scene as ROCKSTAR:INXS' last woman standing in 2005, and has gone on to have an impressive career with 18 Top 20 Canadian radio hits including her single "SuperGirl" which reached gold status.

She's had countless performances across North America sharing the stage with Sheryl Crow, Dave Navarro, Matt Nathanson, singing backup for Pink, and most recently Aerosmith on their "Peace Out" tour.

Aion Clarke is a singer/songwriter whose blend of pop, soul and big band favourites is establishing him as a force on the International music scene. Aion performed his first solo at the age of 4, and grew up studying a wide variety of music- from R&B/soul to country and folk. He has been singing ever since. With headline performances at The MGM Grand Foxwoods, the 2010 Vancouver Olympics, and by lending his voice to the Young Artists for Haiti campaign, Aion has made his mark as a captivating Canadian entertainer.
