OPG Sunday: Animals Abound!

Date and Time: Sunday, September 11 10:30 am - 12:30 pm

Address: 72 Queen St., Civic Centre, Oshawa, ON L1H 3Z3

The RMG encourages families to take some time and enjoy the art making process through creativity and collaboration.

Who has the best adventure journeys? Animals!

This month, we will be inspired by our permanent collection exhibition Journeys to create two artworks featuring beloved Canadian wildlife. In the studio, we will create silhouetted animal paintings while in the gallery exhibition we will texturize critters using watercolour pencil crayons.

Free admission.

This is a drop in event. No registration is required.

This event is generously sponsored by Ontario Power Generation.

Address: 72 Queen St., Civic Centre, Oshawa, ON L1H 3Z3

The Robert McLaughlin Gallery is celebrating Culture Days and Doors Open Oshawa on Saturday, September 24th. There's so much to explore!

Admission and events are all FREE!

Join a guided architecture + art tour 11 AM and 2 PM

Our welcoming Visitor Engagement Assistants will deliver tours of this stunning modern building. Discover the original vision for Oshawa's public gallery, brought to life in 1969, and how architect Arthur Erickson designed a massive 36,000-square-foot extension that made the gallery what it is today.

Participate in a family-friendly art-making activity 1 PM – 3 PM

Design your OWN gallery! Led by our Learning and Engagement team, this drop in activity will invite you to explore Journeys, the major permanent collection exhibition, through an interactive scavenger hunt; then, use the inspiration you find to create mixed media artworks in the studio.
